OCDesignerSource.com Unleashes Fine Artist Gallery via Online Design Studio Center

Innovative Online Gallery Showcases Unique Artist Creations and Design Treasures

Yorba Linda, CA - May 26th, 2009 – OCDesignerSource.com, an innovative online resource center offering world class artist creations and interior design industry marketing solutions for residential and commercial applications is pleased to announce the launch of their artists' online Design Studio Center. This exceptional new forum is unlike traditional galleries, uniquely positioning artistic works and design products from around the country in view of myriad industry professionals, set designers and consumers. OCDesignerSource.com's design studio serves as a resource site offering profiled artists' works exposure to a large targeted audience of US nationally based designers and architects.

OCDesignerSource.com's Design Studio Center showcases a diverse range of original works by world class, award winning artists. The site offers many talents utilizing various media, styles and techniques including, impressionistic, abstract, urban and organic in oils, watercolors and acrylics; unique digital photography; glass, tile and stone art pieces; and realistic reproductions of archival art. The center will also display design specialties and master craft providers featuring iron and wood works, bedding, drapery and an array of design accessories.

Michele Preston, cofounder of OCDesignerSource.com, stated, "The gifted artists featured in our Design Studio Gallery have traditionally experienced limited access to all but select local markets, keeping their works hidden from vast potential markets that include interior designers, set designers, architects and broader US and internationally based customers. Our objective is to provide a unique gallery environment for our artisans, providing them with flexibilities not found in traditional galleries and to offer consumers a personalized experience and diverse selection of talents."

Headquartered in Yorba Linda, California, OCDesignerSource.com is the culmination of its founder's two decades of interior design industry expertise and was established to offer best-in-class, cost-effective consulting and marketing support for top quality artists, tradesmen and designers in the field. The company also serves as a highly respected resource that connects consumers to the best, most reliable local talents in the art and design industry. OCDesignerSource.com's specialty products and artistic works are available for purchase and can be delivered nationally.

Michele Wiemann, cofounder of OCDesignerSource.com, discussing the unique value of their Design Studio Center to the artist and design community, stated, "We are so thrilled with the exceptional talent and quality of work that our vendors, artists, craftsmen and designers have to offer the public market. Our goal is to provide world-class presence, combined with effective marketing support for our members and to provide consumers with the highest quality solutions and services possible."
